Tanner's Successor.

It is Not Yet Decided Who it Will Be.

HOPING WARNER WILL ACCEPT.

In Case That He Does Not Then the Position May Be Tended to Gen. W. H. Gibson, of Toledo, Ohio—Something About our Navy—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The reports which have been put in circulation in the last two days in relation to the president's choice of this or that man for the position of pension commissioner have been based on desire or imagination. Since Maj. Warner, the secretary of the interior and the president had their conference the latter has been as much undetermined as it was the day that Commissioner Tanner sent in his resignation.

One name which was considered at this conference in a very favorable way was one that has been but very little mentioned in the public discussion of the Tanner succession. It was that of Gen. W. H. Gibson, of Toledo, O. Gibson is one of the most popular men in Ohio and his appointment at this time would help the Republican party materially in the coming campaign in that state. But unfortunately Gen. Gibson was auditor of the state of Ohio many years ago at the time that his brother-in-law embezzled some of the fun of the state and he endeavored to shield the criminal.

The people of Ohio of every political faith hold Gen. Gibson in high esteem, and there would be no criticism of his appointment in the state, but there is no doubt that his appointment would arouse a certain amount of criticism in other parts of the country, and so the choice which at one time during the conference seemed almost certain, was not made. The president still has hopes that Maj. Warner will accept, but his best friends do not think that he will.

The Old and New Navy.

WATERSHIPS, Sept. 23.—The Herald speaks of the vessels of the old and the new navy, says: "A timely and effectively cut astern well illustrating the difference between the old navy and the new, is presented by the fact that while the rattle-snake was putting ready for the raid on that developed her maximum of twenty and one-half knots, the frigates, which had been under repair at Portsmouth, also had a trial run and made an average of seven and one-tenth knots, and a maximum of a little over eight with a favoring tide. This at least is the report, which is not quite credible, because accounts had it to have speeded several knots higher.

The frigates was one of the vessels we were relying on for overawing the Germans at Apia, and afterward for sending up to Fehring sea to help the Bush chase the seafarers, even if not to frighten the sixteen-knot arm-clad Swiftsure and her companions. In the trial speed of the frigates is only what has been reported, it is to be hoped that she will not undertake to go after any of the Dominion sailing craft in anything like a good breeze, as they might run away from her. We can afford to be amused now at the tales of the old fleet, when nearly a century ago San Francisco is told of the Charles ton, with her average of eighteen-and-a-half and a maximum of eight-and-a-half knots, made on the official trial.

Wife for Our New Gun.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The ordnance bureau of the war department has opened bids for supplying 8,000 pounds of tinned steel wire of rectangular or square section and 22,000 pounds of steel wire of square section for wrapping guns. The wire for which the bids were invited is intended for use in making the Woolbridge 10-inch rifled guns. It is said at the department that one of the bids at least was reasonable enough in price to warrant a purchase of the wire if good quality.

To determine this point the department will immediately test the samples submitted. When the material is pronounced the ordnance bureau will again advertise for proposals for building the guns, the material and machinery for winding the gun wire to be supplied by the government. No proposals were received in answer to the first advertisement issued, but it is believed that success will attend a re-advertisement. If it should not however, the ordnance bureau will undertake to build the gun, which it is asserted by the inventor, will be fully as efficient and much cheaper of construction than the standard 10-inch steel gun.

A Divorced Wife Shoots Herself.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 23.—Late Saturday night, Miss Luella G. Bezzina, the divorced wife of Henry Kennan, a member of the Cleveland fire department, probably fatally shot herself. She went to the city hall, where Kennan is employed and asked for him, but was not permitted to see him. She sat down and drawing a revolver from her clothes, shot herself in the breast. The physician, who was present, pronounced her dead.

COLD BLOODED MURDER.

A Strong Force of Police Prevents a Lynch-ing in Michigan.

A Man Shoots His Wife and Mother-in-Law and Attempts Suicide.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., Sept. 23.—Word was sent to District Attorney J. C. Meyer of this place, that Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, Seely Hopkins, of Phillipsburg, shot his wife and mother-in-law, and then tried to kill himself, but was unsuccessful. From facts elicited it appears that the family did not live agreeable and some time ago had parted, but lately have been living together again. Sunday morning Hopkins, when intoxicated, provoked a quarrel with his wife, and becoming violently enraged, procured a revolver and shot her.

He then went up stairs and shot his wife's mother dead, after which he proceeded to an adjoining livery stable where he shot himself twice in the head, but neither shot will prove even serious.

He was placed under arrest, immediately confessed the terrible triple crime. He will be brought to Bellfonte and placed in jail to await trial. A medical examination of the man has been made and he is pronounced entirely sane.

Jealousy and a belief in the faithlessness of his wife are believed to have been the reasons that incited Hopkins to the crime. When arrested a letter was found on his person written evidently with the thought that his attempt at suicide would be successful.

Two citizens of Phillipsburg, with being criminally intimate with his wife, and says that he had been bound to get out of town in order not to interfere with his rivals in his wife's affections.

The letter also contains the request that his body be sent to Bert Hopkins, No. 27 Stone street, Rochester, N. Y. Hopkins was arrested Saturday for an assault and battery on his wife committed a week ago, and was committed to jail in default of bail. For some unknown reason the constable failed to take him to jail, but gave him his liberty.

This will be the second murder trial in Bellefonte within a year, the other being that of Bernard Cassidy.

Gang of Counterfeitors Break Up.

TOLEDO, Ill., Sept. 23.—A gang of counterfeitors has been broken up at Sidney, Otoe White, city marshal of Sidney, who is accused by his son of being the leader of the gang, has escaped, but Pliny and Kinsman are in jail at Urbana. Randall, a negro, is Constable of Sidney, was fined $50 by Justice Clark for arresting and attempting to remove without a warrant White's invalid son, who had made a partial confession of his father's guilt.

Corner Stone Laid.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Sept. 23.—Bishop O'Hara of Scranton blessed and laid the corner stone of St. John's Catholic church at Pittston Sunday. Special trains were run from Scranton, Plymouth, Carbondale and Wilkes-Barre and a large number of people were in attendance.

Paris Exposition.

How America is Represented at the Great Show.

OUR AGRICULTURAL EXHIBIT.

It Stands Fourth on the List of Excellence—France, Belgium and England Are Ahead of Us—Newspaper Comments on the Display.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Professor C. V. Riley, who has been in charge of the department of agriculture exhibits at the Paris exposition, has just returned to the city, after an absence of five months.

Professor Riley thinks that some of the criticisms of the American exhibit at Paris have been essentially unjust, and while improvements might have been made, this display not doing us full justice, he considers that as a whole it nevertheless reflects credit on the country which it represents.

"Almost everyone at the exposition," he says, "agreed that after France had taken the lead in the quality and quantity of her general display, then, perhaps, England, America, coming fourth on the list of excellence. I believe that the awards will confirm this estimate. This standing is very creditable, indeed, when it is considered that the United States, the state of Virginia, they claim, having granted permits for that purpose. The oysters in Maryland are excited over it and say they are determined that the state of Maryland shall hold Virginia to a strict observance of the law."

VARIOUS HAPPENINGS IN DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE STATE.

The Dead Body of a Woman Who Starved to Death Found in a Tenement House, and the Corpse Narrowly Escapes Corruption—Other State Items.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 23.—Saturday a woman named Mary Humphreys was found dead in bed in the garret of a tenement house on North Third street. Attention had been called through the newspapers to her deplorable condition, but no attention was given to the case, and it is probable that the woman died of starvation. After being found the remains were prepared for burial or for some of the medical colleges.

Yesterday when the coroner called to hold a post mortem, fire broke out in a room under the one in which the woman lay, but the prompt action of the department prevented the corpse from being burned. The remains were then taken to the coroner's office. The building where the woman died was rented by an Italian named Antonio Catalini. The rooms where the fire originated had been vacated but a few hours before the fire. There is much mystery surrounding the case, but it will never be unraveled, as our thousand dollar detectives are too tired to exert themselves very much.

old Soldier's Body Found in a Stream.

NORWALK, O., Sept. 23.—Sunday morning the body of a man was found dead in Frank run, a stream emptying into Huron river, one mile south of Monroeville. Papers found on the body, issued from the probate judge's office at Sandusky, indicate his name as John Brody, an inmate of Sandusky's soldiers' home. He wore a soldier's home uniform. Brody was seen at Monroeville the day before in company with another soldier. The latter is now missing. Whether drowned or foully dealt with has not yet been ascertained.

Escaped from an Insane Asylum.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 23.—The inmates of the northern Ohio insane asylum eluded the vigilance of their attendants last evening and escaped from the institution. Both are from Warren, O., one being the young wife of Probate Judge Gilbert, and the other Mrs. Mikens, who is a prominent business man. They are friends and escaped together. Mrs. Gilbert is a very attractive woman and highly educated. Escape from the building was made by means of a key made of a comb which is thought the women are in Canada.

A TRIPLE CRIME.

A Man Shoots His Wife and Mother-in-Law and Attempts Suicide.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., Sept. 23.—Word was sent to District Attorney J. C. Meyer of this place, that Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, Seely Hopkins, of Phillipsburg, shot his wife and mother-in-law, and then tried to kill himself, but was unsuccessful.

PRIZE FIGHT.

Eighteen Rounds Fought on an Island in the Missouri River.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 23.—A fight with skin gloves, Marquis of Queensberry rules, occurred Sunday morning between Martin Durkin, of Kansas City, and Frank Neal, of St. Louis. The battle ground was located on the island in the Missouri river which is under the jurisdiction of the United States. The purse was $200 and the gate receipts, and the fight lasted eighteen rounds.

The bout began on the island in the Missouri river which is under the jurisdiction of the United States. The purse was $200 and the gate receipts, were dispensed on a distribution of news was received with mingled cheers and hoots by the rival contingents, and a row seemed imminent the police and mounted guards charged upon and dispersed the crowd. Several persons were arrested.

In the Montmartre district there are 18,743 registered electors. Of these 11,686 voted. Boulanger received 5,880 votes, and there were 2,391 blank voting papers. A ballot is, therefore, necessary. It is admitted that the blanks really represent Boulanger's votes. The public consider the tactics adopted unfair.

Rioting in the Title Tax.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The bitter feeling in Wales over the title question shows no sign of abatement. The opposition to the payment of the taxes is deeply rooted, and has its origin in the fact though the benefits for which this tax was an equivalent have long since ceased to be shared by the people, all complaints and efforts to secure a repeal or reduction of the burden have been disregarded by the government. The office of title collector is now by no means an easy one to fill, nor even a safe one. In various places, streets and houses are barricaded, and it is a task of great difficulty for the collectors to reach the persons whom they are to demand the titles. They are then likely to find that those of whom they are seeking have fled, as the approach of the official is heralded from afar by means of guns and horns, the inhabitants all working together in their resistance to what they consider oppression.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

This powder never raises. A marvel of purity and whiteness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitudes of low cost, short weight flour. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., LTD., 109 Wall St., NEW YORK.

EVERY DOCTOR Whose Medical Therapeutics Enables him to the above the narrow-minded bigotry of Certain Schools of Medicine WILL HAVE BOWANEE.

With delight, He will try it. He will then prescribe it. He will find it does the work. He will then openly say,

The World Has Use For all such. It is they who march forward to honor, fame and fortune, and are loved and respected for the good they do.

The Narrow-Minded Dypeptic Doctor is shunned and hated by his fellow-men. All such would Lot Their Patients Die before they would administer BOWANEE, even if they knew it would cure. TRY IT.

BASE BALL.

Standing of the American Association and League Clubs.

Brooklyn still holds the lead in the American Association base ball race, and will probably carry off the pennant, while the leadership of the League lies between New York and Boston, with the chances now in favor of the former.

The following is the standing of the clubs up to and including Sunday's games:

The campaign can not be expected to warm up to the highest pitch in the newspapers for about three weeks yet, then the base ball season will be over.

BOUTANGER has been snubbed and ridiculed in the American press but he still has a strong hold on France, according to the election returns. Boutanger isn't wholly a dead political duck yet.

The Republican county convention will be interesting from the fact that the indications are that the old blunder will be repeated, that of attempting to elect two Republicans. The last few years have taught that attempting too much is generally futile, while concentrating the fight against one weak place is usually successful.

The council will find a pointer in the fact that nearly every citizen favors the project of the city drilling for gas. There is no mistaking the public sentiment on the subject. Marion must have gas, not only to keep her place among manufacturing cities, but for the comfort that it brings to the homes of every city. Let the council give the subject some attention.

The year 1889, destined to be memorable as a year of peace, has been marked more than any year almost in living memory by great disasters—disasters destructive of human life and property. Floods, storms, invasions of the sea upon the land have been of frequent occurrence; and in almost every instance they have been ruinous. Scarcey had our attention been withdrawn from the devastating storms on our coasts, when we are informed of floods in Japan—floods which have been ruinous on a scale of unprecedented magnitude. And now comes this tale of horror from Canada. It does not appear that any one has been to blame. The unfortunate sufferers, however, are numerous; and they are entitled to our hearty sympathy.

Autumn Leaves.

In the section of the Paris exhibition devoted to the Histoire du Theatre there is a collection of wax models of feet of noted ballet dancers.

Queen Victoria's recent visit to Wales brings out the statistics that during her reign of over half a century twelve days only have been spent in Ireland.

Seventy-three years ago Mrs. Sally J. Weston Buckham, then a blushing bride, went to homelessness in a small farm house on the west slope of Mount Prospect, N. H. In this same house, where she has lived ever since, she recently celebrated her one-hundredth birthday, and was strong enough to recover not only her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, but also a large number of her friends and acquaintances.

DAUGHTERS OF EVE.

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's favorite dish is bread and butter and pineapple.

Lucy Stone is 71. She began lecturing on woman's rights and wrongs in 1847.

Mrs. Henry S. Kimball, of West Philadelphia, is receiving the credit of originating Memorial day.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., possesses a musical prodigy. She is the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. Peter Deyo.

If Sarah Althea Hill looks like all her mothers, she has more variety than a kaleidoscopic chameleon.

Mrs. Harrison has decided not to indulge in promiscuous handshaking at public receptions or on state occasions.

Among the petitioners for clemency for Mrs. Maybrick were several women who offered to change in her place.

Mrs. Emily Crawford, the Paris correspondent, is about to receive a testimonial from English and French women journalists.

The Baroness Cantoni is to start in November on a year's journey in the interior of Africa. She is 19, and is celebrated for her beauty.

The widow of Richard A. Proctor, the distinguished astronomer, is to deliver a series of lectures next winter and will use the same outfit her husband did.

Mrs. Morsolini and Miss Wilson, guests at the United States hotel, at Saratoga, have introduced there the fashion of wearing wigs about their heads.

Three Polish sisters, the Miles, Welt, of Czernovitz, have recently graduated from the Vienna Medical university and two of them will practice in the United States.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bach, author of "Zora," "An Author's Love" and "Mustard Leaves," has adapted a play from the French, which will be brought out in London during the autumn.

At a Catholic church dedication near London Mary Anderson wore a gray costume, with crimson silk vest, a small black velvet mantelet, trimmed with jet, and a hat of black velvet, trimmed with birds.

Dr. Marie M. Dean, a homeopathic physician who took an office in Helena, M. T., three years ago, after studying medicine in the United States and Berlin, now has a practice that yields her an income stated at $12,000 a year.

The recent appointment of Miss Joanna Baker to the chair of Greek at Simpson College, Indianapolis, Ind., is a significant fact, as showing the progress of women since it was first permitted to her to acquire the alphabet. Miss Baker succeeds to the position filled by her father, Professor O. H. Baker, seventeen years ago in the same institution.

Mrs. Mackay, the wife of the "Bonanza King" of California, is the owner of the superb robe presented to the Empress Eugenie by the municipality of Paris in the time of the second empire. The robe is of lace, entirely covered with flowers. It was made at Chantilly, and took five of the best hands of that celebrated fabric fourteen years to make it, at a cost of 100,000 francs.

Seventy-three years ago Mrs. Sally J. Weston Buckham, then a blushing bride, went to homelessness in a small farm house on the west slope of Mount Prospect, N. H. In this same house, where she has lived ever since, she recently celebrated her one-hundredth birthday, and was strong enough to recover not only her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, but also a large number of her friends and acquaintances.

A new novel by Duran is expected about Christmas.

Mr. William Ernest Headly, the author and poet, began life as a laborer.

Mr. Marion Crawford is described as a man of really profound scholarship.

There is said to be little doubt in England that Sir Edwin Arnold will be the next laureate.

William Henry Bishop, the novelist, is now settled with his family at the Villa Blancheri, near Nice.

Tolstoy, it is reported, has been obliged to stop smoking, and this has sadly interfered with his power to write.

Tennyson's forthcoming volume is to be made up of verses recently composed and of scraps rescued from forgotten books.

James Whitecomb Riley has not been well this summer and has done very little literary work. He is regaining his health rapidly.

It is said that Luther R. Marsh, the New York lawyer who became a believer in Spiritualism and Miss Dias De Bar, is writing a book on Spiritualism.

Mr. Archibald Grove, who is at the head of The New Review, is only about 28 years old. He took double honors at Oxford in 1880, and has spent much time in travel.

A most interesting literary event in the shape of a new and hitherto wholly unknown series of letters by the famous Lord Chesterfield is promised. They will be edited by Lord Carnarvon.

Oscar Browning, the English writer, and Robert Barrett Browning, the artist, are now conjoined with each other. The latter is Robert Browning's only son, and is not related to the former.

Robert Louis Stevenson is last home from the Gilbert islands of the South seas. He is on board his schooner Equator, and has picked up not only his health, but much good material for a book.

Peter Mitchell, who wrote the independence article in the Montreal Herald recently that has caused such a sensation, is a man of wealth. He was once a Tory and member of Sir John Macdonald's cabinet. He is one of the directors of the Grand Trunk railroad of Canada.

Joaquin Miller, the poet of the Sierras, has shaken the dust of the effete east from his soiled heels and gone to California to plant trees. He says that he has planted 15,000 within the past three years. When not engaged in tree planting he is busy with his great work, a life of Christ.

WONDERFUL MEMORIES.

John Wesley had a remarkable memory, and at 85, even, it was still vigorous.

Both Macaulay and Sir Walter Scott had prodigious memories.

Andrew Fuller could repeat a poem of 500 lines after hearing it read once or twice.

Before the days of shorthand reporting, "Memory Woolfall" used to attend the house of commons, and, after listening to a debate, would reproduce the whole without taking a single note.

Robert Postlethwait, an illiterate Puritan, invented a long leather girdle, which he wound twice about his body, and upon which he preserved an accurate biblical record. By means of this girdle he was able to take such notes of the sermon that on returning home he could give all the heads and quote all the various texts mentioned in it. —All the Year Round.

A COLORED ROMULUS.

Capture of a Child That Was Stolen and Bared by a Wolf.

Some twenty months ago a woman living on the banks of the Brazos missed her 3 months old baby from the pallet where she had left it lying during an absence of a few minutes. Search was made for the infant, but no trace of it could be discovered, and the whole affair was wrapped in profound mystery until a few days ago. A party of gentlemen were riding through a somewhat un frequented portion of the thick woods that border the river, when they were startled by seeing a strange object run across the road. Thinking at first sight that it was a wild animal, several of the party were about to fire on it, when the one who had been nearest to it called to them not to shoot, but to ride it down instead. This was done with difficulty, for the underbrush was thick, but at last the creature was overtaken in a dense copse. It was half running, half leaping, first on all fours and then nearly upright.

The gentlemen dismounted and attempted to lay hands upon it, but chattering frightfully and savagely biting and scratching, it broke away from them. They could see that it had a human face, though the brown body was covered with long, tangled hair, and the nails of the feet and hands so long and curved as to be claws. It ran with incredible swiftness, getting over fallen trees and dense masses of creepers at a rate that obliged its pursuers to exert themselves to the utmost to keep it in view. It finally ran into an immense oak tree that lay upright in the ground, and the hollow trunk of which formed a yawning cavern. By the dint of poking in the tree with sticks the party succeeded in driving out an old wolf, which immediately took to its heels. It was not pursued, as it was not the object sought. This, too, was finally dislodged and issued with a fatal mace of Jades. It bit and scratched so fiercely that it was thought advisable not to approach it, as it was half drugged, half led home with the larva about its neck, howling and yelping like a wolf.

The fact of the negro woman's child having disappeared was well known to all, and it was decided that this must be the child. The old wolf had evidently stolen it and for some reason adopted it as its own. The mother declared that this conjecture was correct, claiming that her child had had a malformation of one ear, which peculiarity was found in the monster. It is kept tied up in her cabin, suffering no one to lay hands upon it, and is fed on raw meat, as it refuses to touch any other food. The woman has hopes that she may yet awaken the human in it, but in the meantime she is reaping a harvest from the crowds who come daily from all parts of the country to inspect the strange creature.—Sandy Point (Tex.) Star, Pittsburgh Dispatch.

An American Buddhist in Japan.

Col. Olcott is said to have created a veritable furor in his recent Buddhist tour through Japan. At first some of the Buddhist priests gave him the cold shoulder. Then he began to excite popular interest, which was intensified as he went through the larger provincial towns. At Nagoya, a large commercial town between Tokio and Kyoto, he had audiences at each lecture of about 4,000 people, and it is said that the wildest applause everywhere greets his declarations that the closest relationship exists between the stable progress of the nation and the maintenance of true Buddhism. The Buddhists who control his tour, seeing the effect he is producing, are hurrying him about, so that he is delivering orations and lectures in three or four different places in the same day. He does not speak a word of Japanese, and his lectures are therefore delivered in English and translated on the platform by an interpreter, sentenced by sentence, as he goes along. Yet he arouses great enthusiasm. Not only the common people hear him, but also the high officials. In many of the large towns through which he passed special meetings were held at times suitable to officials, as they were alone present.—Home Journal.

CAUTION

factory; this protects the wearers against high prices and inferior goods. If your dealer does not keep the style or kind you want, or offers you shoes without W. L. Douglas' name and price stamped on them, and says they are just as good, do not be deceived thereby, but send direct to the Factory for you can get what you want by return mail, postage paid. Dealers make more profit on unknown shoes that are not warranted by anybody; therefore do not be induced to buy shoes that have no reputation. Buy only those that have W. L. Douglas' name and the price stamped on the bottom, and you are sure to get full value for your money. Thousands of dollars are saved annually in this country by the wearers of W. L. Douglas' Shoes. In ordering by mail state whether you want Congress, Button or Lace, London cap toe, plain French toe, or narrow cap toe, and be sure to give size and width you wear. I can fit any foot that is not deformed, as my shoes are made in a great variety of widths, sizes and half sizes. I guarantee a fit, prompt delivery and perfect satisfaction or money refunded upon return of the shoes in good condition.

BADLY BURNED

White Attempting to Rescue His Wife from a Horrible Fire.

John Frey, residing on Silver street, had both hands terribly burned Sunday morning in a very exciting manner. While attending to mending household duties Mrs. Frey's dress was set ablaze by a flash from the gasoline stove and her condition was one of imminent peril. Her husband rushed to her assistance and by heroic efforts succeeded in subduing the flames, but not until a dress skirt was consumed and his hands fearfully burned. Mrs. Frey was not injured to any extent whatever.

To the Ladies of Marion County and all who are interested in the fine arts, paintings, drawings, needle work, etc., of the country:

One year ago I selected five competent ladies who revised the premium list for Fine Art Hall, making very liberal premium, cutting out and adding to as they thought proper. The society adopted the same without a change and now we are constructing a mammoth and elegant Art Hall, 110x40 feet in size, having a raised platform around the inside 8 feet wide with a railing thereon to protect the articles on exhibition from the hands of the visitors, so that all articles in said hall will be properly protected and locked up at night. We are striving to procure competent persons from other countries to act as judges. We are promised a grand display of flowers by Messrs. Wilson and Blake and ladies. We have the assurance of a fine display of musical instruments, sewing machines, cases of goods of different kinds from Marion dealers, and as the walls will be so large and clean, we ask that the ladies will do all they can to make this the grandest display that Marion county has ever seen. If you have fancy articles, fine paintings or drawings, etc., enter them, and if you have choice paintings and do not wish to enter for premiums, cannot you place them upon our spacious walls for ten days where we will take good care of them and thus help to make the old saying doubly true, that Marion Fair is second to none in the state? —H. C. CLAMEN, Supt. of Fine Arts.

Winter Predictions.

The weatherwise are already prepared with predictions for the coming winter. One of these time-worn veterans says we will have an early fall and a long, cold, hard winter. This old fellow is an observer of nature's provisions for the seasons, and says the thickness of the skins of fruit is an unfailing indication of the weather that is to follow. Last season the skins of apples were so thin and tender that it was almost impossible to pick and pack the fruit in good condition. This season the reverse is true—the thin skins are unusually thick and tenacious, peaches and grapes are eatable the same as the apples, corn also hangs out a cold weather sign, and the straw on the various kinds of grain is tougher, more waxy and the seed pods are better protected. Young men who hung up their last year's woolens and overcoats in the loft of their uncle will do well to heed the warning of the weatherwise. The chills and frosts of winter will find them all unprepared for the change which is so near at hand.

Grand and Petty Juries.

The following juries have been drawn for the October term of court, the grand and petit juries being given in one list, according to the new law: James H. ### Mrs. S. D. Bates Dead.

Mrs. Ideometry Brockton Bates, the esteemed widow of the late Rev. S. D. Bates, died on Sunday after a long and hopeless illness with dropsy.

The funeral will occur at her late residence on south Main street Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. M. C. Miner, assisted by Rev. A. Sutton.

Rushing to Where the Angels Stay Out.

"I have a joke," said the breezy young man, seating himself on the table of the abo editor, "on the pines at the railroad restaurant in your town, and she's a coiner, too; it's a thoroughbred, and good for a wad in the city, but I'll leave it with you for nothing." Rends—"A red headed pie in the sky?" (This is the same young man who went before the hanging by lightning commission in this state and declared that he once sustained, by the breaking of a wire above his head, a shock of 1,500 ohms and an alternating current of repeating volts that lasted all the way down stairs on a high tension circuit; his mind, he said, remained clear during the entire shock or succession of shocks, and he remembered distinctly hearing the editor say, with what seemed to him a great deal of irrelevancy under the circumstances, "I'll teach you, young man, I'll let you know that I own a half interest in that restaurant and married the cook last week")—Robert J. Burdette in Brooklyn Eagle.

Mrs. S. D. Bates Dead.

Mrs. Ideometry Brockton Bates, the esteemed widow of the late Rev. S. D. Bates, died on Sunday after a long and hopeless illness with dropsy.

An Unfortunate Accide.

Saturday's Columbus Dispatch contains the following from Marion:

"The town is all gospal over a disgraceful occurrence at the cemetery last Thursday afternoon. A year ago Thursday a prominent young man was buried. At intervals a young lady friend of the deceased, who was objected to by his family, has visited the grave. Thursday, accompanied by a lady, she drove to the cemetery on the same mission and while standing by the grave a sister of the young man approached and seeing her, rushed upon her and delivered a blow to the face, knocking her down. The lady friend by this time came up and interceded, taking the injured girl to her home. Great efforts have been made to keep the affair quiet on account of the prominence of the parties, but it has leaked out."

Home-Made Wines.

A. Ratcliff is prepared to deliver his famous home-made wines to any part of Marion. These wines are of his own making and are pure and are highly recommended by physicians for medicinal use. He has Cat-tawia, Concord, Delaware, Elvexy and other brands. Give them a trial. Call at his cellar at residence if you desire to select. —[11-10]
